Descrizione	The catalogue has been published for the exhibitions Arturo Martini and Florence and Arturo Martini and Carrara, part of the Solo series given over to leading 20th century artists. Besides exploring Martini's works in the Alberto Della Ragione collection, the volume also investigates the sculptor's sojourns in Florence and Carrara, presenting a number of fascinating works, some of which have not been on public display for a long time. In addition to important contributions by well-known scholars, two contemporary artists also offer their own reflections on Martini.
